The Valdry Center for Philanthropy (VCP) boasts an impressive floorplan designed to accommodate countless possibilities for any social or corporate gathering.

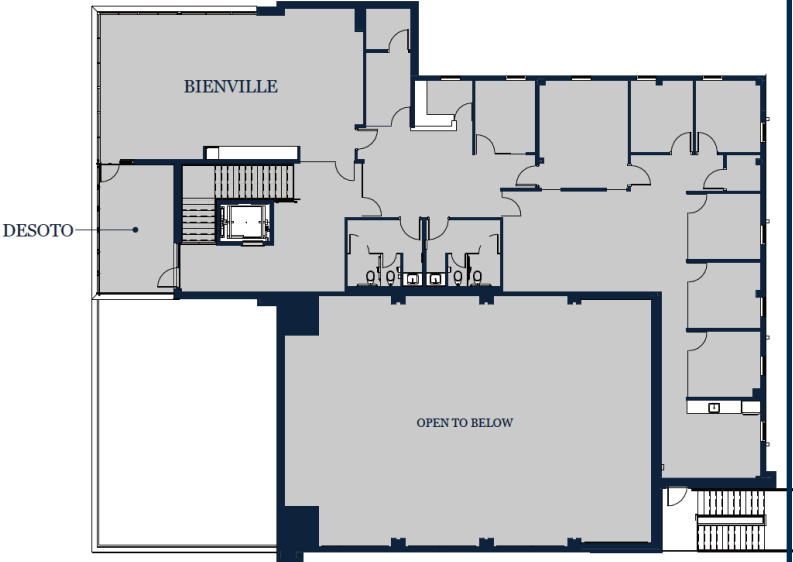

The newly constructed 11,000 square foot facility, located on the historic Southern University Baton Rouge campus, is an upscale modern property that offers seven event spaces which include a stunning 1,950 square foot terrace/garden, two state of the art classrooms, a spacious auditorium, and an inviting outdoor deck.

Consider VCP as your venue of choice for your next social or corporate event. The VCP planning team will gladly assist you with important event details ranging from room layouts, dining menus and accommodations, audio visual setup, parking, and so much more.

Our Mission
The Valdry Center for Philanthropy seeks to educate the socially conscious student, volunteer, and practitioner in the emerging field of philanthropic studies, through exploring the economic, historical, and philosophical rationales for voluntary action in the local, national, and international arenas.
